Go back in time to meet Abraham Lincoln during his early life as well as his most notable years through The Civil War and The Gettysburg Address.

Gain a better understanding of the 16th President, as a man, a husband and a father. Lincoln was a man who was described by Carl Sandberg as “being made of velvet and steel; A man filled with compassion and resolve.”

presented by

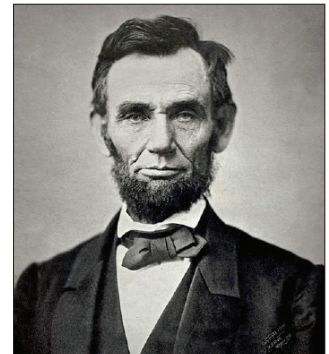

Robert Costello

A Civil War reenactor realistically portrays President Lincoln so you really feel you are in the presence of the 16th President of the United States.

Costello won acclaim for his portrayal of President Lincoln, appearing before a variety of audiences.

He has been selected to participate in Civil War ceremonies to deliver the famous Gettysburg Address.

A local hero, resident of Piscataway.
